Terms and Conditions

I/we, authorise and request Till Payments Solutions Pty Limited (Till Payments) ABN 64 160 726 349 User ID No.382220, until further notice in writing, to arrange for my/our account to be debited/credited with any amounts which Till Payments may properly debit/ credit or charge me/us through the Direct Debit/Direct Credit system.

1. I/we may defer or alter a debit payment by giving Till Payments at least fourteen days written notice before the next debit day.
2. I/we may stop a debit payment, or cancel a direct debit request, by giving Till Payments at least fourteen days written notice before the next debit day. I/we can also cancel a direct debit request by contacting my/our own financial institution directly.
3. Till Payments may vary the terms of the direct debit request or this agreement by giving me/us at least fourteen days written notice.
4. It is my/our responsibility to ensure there are sufficient cleared funds available in my/our account so that the debit payment can be processed in accordance with the direct debit request. If there aren't sufficient clear funds available in my/our account, I/we:
   a) may be charged a fee and/or interest by my/our financial institution;
   b) may also incur fees that are payable to Till Payments; and
   c) must arrange for the payment to be made by another method.
5. If the debit day falls on a day that isn't a business day, Till Payments may debit my/our account on the following business day. (I/we can ask our financial institution if you're unsure which day my/our account will be debited.)
6. If I/we believe there's been an error in debiting my/our account, I/we should notify Till Payments in writing as soon as possible. I/we can also contact my/our financial institution. If Till Payments concludes that there's been an error, it is to let me/us know and arrange for my/our financial institution to adjust my/our account (including interest and charges) accordingly. If Till Payments concludes that there hasn't been an error, it will let me/us know the reasons and any evidence for this finding.
7. Till Payments will keep any information in my/our direct debit request confidential and make reasonable efforts to keep it secure from unauthorised use, modification, reproduction or disclosure. Till Payments is only to disclose the information:
   a) to the extent specifically required by law; or
   b) for the purposes of this agreement (including in connection with any query or claim).
8. I/we are aware that direct debiting through BECS is not available for all financial institution accounts.
9. Till Payments recommends that I/we check the account details I/we have provided to Till Payments against a recent statement from my/ our financial institution. If I/we are uncertain as to these details, I/we will check with my/our financial institution before agreeing to these terms, and completing the direct debit request.
10. Till Payments will store and protect my/our account details in accordance with its applicable policies, including its Privacy Policy, but may need to provide details of my/our direct debit requests to its bank, including to allow it to deal with any claims.

Privacy Statement – Individual and Merchant Information

Till Payments collects personal information about you so that we can provide you with the services you have requested or offer you other services, which may be relevant to your needs, or for both purposes. Personal information provided to Till Payments may be shared with related companies where it will be kept strictly confidential and will only be disclosed on a need to know basis. Till Payments will use and disclose personal information for the purpose for which the personal information was initially collected.
