Terms and Conditions

I/we, authorise and request Till Payments Solutions Pty Limited (Till Payments) ABN 64 160 726 349 User ID No.382220, until further notice in writing, to arrange for my/our account to be debited/credited with any amounts which Till Payments may properly debit/ credit or charge me/us through the Direct Debit/Direct Credit system.

1. I/we may defer or alter a debit payment by giving Till Payments at least fourteen days written notice before the next debit day.
2. I/we may stop a debit payment, or cancel a direct debit request, by giving Till Payments at least fourteen days written notice before the next debit day. I/we can also cancel a direct debit request by contacting my/our own financial institution directly.
3. Till Payments may vary the terms of the direct debit request or this agreement by giving me/us at least fourteen days written notice.
4. It is my/our responsibility to ensure there are sufficient cleared funds available in my/our account so that the debit payment can be processed in accordance with the direct debit request. If there aren't sufficient clear funds available in my/our account, I/we:
   a) may be charged a fee and/or interest by my/our financial institution;
   b) may also incur fees that are payable to Till Payments; and
   c) must arrange for the payment to be made by another method.
5. If the debit day falls on a day that isn't a business day, Till Payments may debit my/our account on the following business day. (I/we can ask our financial institution if you're unsure which day my/our account will be debited.)
6. If I/we believe there's been an error in debiting my/our account, I/we should notify Till Payments in writing as soon as possible. I/we can also contact my/our financial institution. If Till Payments concludes that there's been an error, it is to let me/us know and arrange for my/our financial institution to adjust my/our account (including interest and charges) accordingly. If Till Payments concludes that there hasn't been an error, it will let me/us know the reasons and any evidence for this finding.
7. Till Payments will keep any information in my/our direct debit request confidential and make reasonable efforts to keep it secure from unauthorised use, modification, reproduction or disclosure. Till Payments is only to disclose the information:
   a) to the extent specifically required by law; or
   b) for the purposes of this agreement (including in connection with any query or claim).
8. I/we are aware that direct debiting through BECS is not available for all financial institution accounts.
9. Till Payments recommends that I/we check the account details I/we have provided to Till Payments against a recent statement from my/ our financial institution. If I/we are uncertain as to these details, I/we will check with my/our financial institution before agreeing to these terms, and completing the direct debit request.
10. Till Payments will store and protect my/our account details in accordance with its applicable policies, including its Privacy Policy, but may need to provide details of my/our direct debit requests to its bank, including to allow it to deal with any claims.

Privacy Statement – Individual and Merchant Information
